Seventy-first session
Item 67 (a) of the provisional agenda*
Elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance: elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance

Status of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination

Report of the Secretary-General

1. By its resolution 2106 A (XX), the General Assembly adopted and opened for signature and ratification the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination,[1] invited the States referred to in article 17 of the Convention to sign and ratify it without delay and requested the Secretary-General to submit to it reports concerning the state of ratifications of the Convention, which would be considered by the Assembly at future sessions.

2. In section III of its resolution 67/156, the General Assembly reaffirmed its conviction that ratification of or accession to the Convention on a universal basis and the implementation of its provisions were necessary for the effectiveness of the fight against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance and for the implementation of the commitments undertaken under the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action,[2] and expressed its disappointment that universal ratification of the Convention had not been achieved by the targeted date of 2005; and urged States parties to comply fully with their obligations under the Convention and to take into consideration the concluding observations and general recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination.

3. In paragraph 4 of its resolution 69/161, the General Assembly reiterated, in the run-up to the fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Convention, its call for the universal ratification and effective implementation of the Convention by all States parties to eliminate all forms of racial discrimination.

4. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 7 March 1966. It entered into force on 4 January 1969, on the thirtieth day after the date of deposit

The provisions of article 14 entered into force on 3 December 1982, in accordance with paragraph 9 of that article.

7. By its resolution 68/268, entitled "Strengthening and enhancing the effective functioning of the human rights treaty body system", the General Assembly recognized the importance of providing the human rights treaty bodies with additional meeting time in order to enable them to discharge their mandates in a timely fashion. Accordingly, the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination held two sessions of three weeks' duration and one session of four weeks' duration in 2015 and 2016. In accordance with article 9, paragraph 2, of the Convention, the Committee is to submit, through the Secretary-General, an annual report to the Assembly. 8. In accordance with paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 69/161, the report of the Secretary-General on the financial situation of the Committee has not been produced, since there has not been any change in the status of contributions by the States parties that are still in arrears as a result of the non-payment of previous assessments (see A/69/328).
